United States Revenue Cutter on the Rocks at Sitka.

Struck While Entering the Harbor at Night on May 29.

No Lives Lost, but Naval Station Supplies Are in Danger.

SAN FRAMUISCO, June 7. - The United States revenue cutter Bear is this time is battered to pieces. despatch from one of the officers of the well-known vessel says she is fast on the rocks at the entrance of the harbor at Sitka.

The steamer was ploughing her way into the harbor at g speed on the night of May good when she struck on a rock, and all efforts to get her relief were unavailing. She went on at high water, and the officers state that they have very little hope of ever getting her off. Her stern was the part to suffer most and the despatch says that her rudder, propeller and sternpost were gone, and in a sea the vessel must surely break up, as it would be impossible for break up, as it would be impossible for her to stand any amount of pounding on the fagged points of the rock on which she rests.

The Bear left San Francisco about six weeks ago to join the Behring Sea fleet to protect the seals. In her hold she had about 299 tons of freight for the naval supply staions at Point Clarence and Point Barry, and if it is lost the cutters will necessarily be short of supplies unless another vessel is sent up with the necessary cargo. No lives were reported lost.

Mrs. Fitzgerald was in good spirits, and neatly attired in a black dress and black beaded bonnet. Prior to leaving the Tombs she bid an affectionate good-by to the matrons, and thanked them for their attentions during the eight months she had spent in the cight months she had spent in the prison.

Mrs. McLaughlin, one of the matrons, told an "Evening World" reporter that Mrs. Fitzgerald has been rational in every way for months, and that when she is released from the insane asylum she will undoubtedly live with her hus, band, whose attention to Mrs. Pearsall was the cause of the killing. Mrs. McLaughlin said that Fitzgerald spent an hour with his wife in her room adjoining the matron's room on Tuesday, and his wife seemed as fond of him an ever.

Judge Cowing, who committed Mrs
Fitsgerald to the asylum, ordered the commitment papers held until las night to give Messrs. Friend & House her counsel, an opportunity to apply for a writ of habeas corpus to the Supreme Court. The lawyers, satisfied that she is sane, decided not to do this, being con-fident that their client will soon be discharged.

at 517 West Twenty-seventh street yesterday by climbing over neighboring roofs and forcing the scuttle. He arrayed himself in a suit of his own clothes and, it is said, took a gold locket worth 550.

When Mr. Mahoney went home later in the day, his parrot, which had been a mute but watchful witness of young Mahoney's raid, shouted out:
"Say, old man, the house has been robbed."
The old gentleman swears that is the truth. He looked around and found that the parrot was right.
"Who did it?" he asked.
"Johnnie done it," replied the sagacious but ungrammatical bird.
So Mr. Mahoney went right out and had his son arrested. Mahoney says he will call the parrot as a witness when the case comes to trial.
